FOR THE CALLER

How to play

Before: print one card per player (every card is different) and the caller cards. Cut the caller cards apart and put them in a bowl or a hat. Players need a pen, or coins and buttons to cover the squares.

Calling: draw a card, read the country's name and show its flag. Read the capital and the region too, for a little conversation. Tick it on the checklist so you can check a winner.

Winning: the middle square is free. The first player with five in a row, across, down or corner to corner, calls out "Bingo!". Check the countries against the checklist.

Ways to play

- Four corners: cover the four corner squares.
- Full house: cover every square on the card. Takes longer, good for the last game.
- Flags only: show only the flag and let the room guess the country before you read the name.
- Easy start: for a first game, say the region before the name so players know where to look.
